1895-1896
My grandmother, Estella Mae Riley, was a founding member of Zeta Chapter at the University of Cincinnati. When I pledged, in 1955, my mother gave me 2 books of minutes that she had found in the belongings of Estella Mae Riley.

Minutes 1892-1896
Minutes 1904-1912

I have kept them carefully all these years, and have just finished copying them word for word. I have spaced them on the pages as in the originals, and have used original spelling, punctuation etc. When there was a word that I couldn’t read I used .... When I could read the letters but didn’t understand the meaning of the word I used (sic).

These two sets of original minutes I have now donated to Delta Delta Delta and are stored for safe keeping at the home office.

I hope that all who read them will enjoy them as much as I have.

Question of programme for writer’s work, which had lain over was then taken up and Homer agreed upon for first programme. Miss Fick and Miss Powell appointed to prepare the literary portion and Miss Powers for musical portion of programme. Chief business of meeting namely initiation of proposed members was then taken up.

Miss Powell was then the first to be initiated, followed by Mrs. Baldwin, Miss Nina Rawson and Miss Fortney each to be heartily greeted as a Δ sister. After business of meeting was over, Tri Deltas were most delightfully entertained by the hostess Miss Riley, and a dainty repast was enjoyed by all present. In spite of the fact that the weather was rather inclement, the afternoon was an enjoyable one, due largely to our charming hostess and the absentee missed a most pleasant treat. ΔΔΔ then adjourned to meet on Jan 6\textsuperscript{th}, with a membership of fourteen.

Jan. 6, 93

Meeting of ΔΔΔ held Jan. 6 at College building opened with reading of minutes which were approved as read. First question considered was one of declaring ourselves as in favor of any single one of the Gentlemen’s fraternities, which was decided in negative. Then adjourned, after it had been decided to use the intellectual salad for next programme to meet at residence of Miss Fick January 27, 1893.

Meeting of Tri Delta held Jan. 27, 93, opened with reading of 14\textsuperscript{th} Chapter of John and after roll call prayer by Miss Kinney. Sec’y then read minutes of last meeting which were approved.

The first matter for discussion was question of the regularity of sessions and it was decided that for Feb. first meeting should be held in afternoon of second Friday at Miss Rawson’s and second one to be held on Feb. 22nd at Miss Baldwin’s. Miss Fortney and Miss Powell appointed to take charge of Homer meeting, as roll call of which members were to respond with quotation from the poet in question.

James Whitcomb Riley decided upon for second meeting of which Miss Lambdin and Miss Baldwin were appointed in charge.

After a vocal solo the society was favored with a recitation by Miss Lambdin. Miss Marpé then rendered a beautiful piano solo.

The feature of the afternoon, a literary salad, was then undertaken and enjoyed by all present, after which the hostess, Miss Fick, delightfully entertained with something materially more substantial.

After an exceedingly pleasant afternoon, the circle adjourned to meet on Feb. 6, 93. It was decided in order to ensure presence of members, to exact a fine of five cents in case of absence from any meeting for any other cause than sickness, unless the society should see fit to exempt any member from this fine on account of some other excuse which is considered as adequate.

Feb. 10

Meeting of ΔΔΔ held Feb. 10, opened with Bible reading from James and prayer. Roll call followed at which members responded with quotations from Holmes. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved with one alteration. Programme was then taken up and consisted of

- Piano Solo  Miss Marpe
- Life of Holmes  Miss Stella Fortney
- Ballad of Oysterman  Miss Powers
- Guitar Solo  Miss Rawson

The programme proper closed with a vocal solo and recitation. Business of meeting was then taken up. Miss Powell kindly offered her home for the next meeting, which was placed in hands of Miss Powers and Fortney, poets being E.A. Poe. It was agreed that for incidental expenses, a quarter should be handed by each member to the Treasurer. It was also decided that for correspondence with the Alpha and other chapters of Δ the regular stationary of the society be used, and to this the corresponding secretary was commissioned to attend.

After discussing several other minor points the Frat. joined in singing the Delta songs. After being most delightfully entertained by the hostess Miss Rawson the society adjourned to meet Feb 22nd.

March 3rd

On account of the illness of Miss. Baldwin, with whom we were to have met on the 22nd of February, the Riley meeting was postponed until March 3rd. This session opened with scripture reading from 18th of Matthew and prayer as usual. Nine members responded to roll call. The minutes were then read and approved unaltered.

Miss Marpé favored the society by rendering that beautiful composition of Gottchalk’s, “The Last Hope.”
As the programme had not been prepared and there were several business matters to be discussed, the literary phase of the meeting was dispersed with.

The matter of having chapter laws was discussed, and as such is the rule in all Greek Frates, 3 were appointed as committee, Misses Powell, Marpé and Powers, to draw up such laws and submit them to the circle for consideration. The circle decided that the name of Jewess be entirely omitted in these laws.

Miss Kinney, in absence of Miss Fick, gave voice to her idea that programme be placed in hands of members in alphabetical order, and that such member as has programme may choose her own theme, write such paper and call upon other members for assistance. Miss Darcey to take charge of first such meeting.

The question of programme for coming year was then taken up and discussed openly, the members agreeing with one suggestion made, namely that the
be a systematic one, having topics of meetings etc. – fixed beforehand and that they be published in somewhat style of Tourist Programme. Miss Riley and Powers appointed to attend to making out of programme for academic year of ’93 and ’94.

The V.C.P. society, although not Greek has, through a representative, requested of us that we wait until Christmas before asking members of Freshman class to join us. In view of fact that a prospective Frat. is being considered among the present Freshmen, the question was laid over until we should hear more positively concerning the matter. And Miss Fortney was appointed to let V.C.P. know how we felt about the matter. When all business matters had been sufficiently discussed, Miss Powell favored us with a vocal solo. Then after partaking of the bounty of our hostess we joined in some of the Δ songs. After an exceedingly pleasant afternoon, the society adjourned to meet March 10 at home of Mrs. Baldwin.
On account of the unavoidable absence of our president at the opening of the meeting the literary programme was taken up first and opened with a piano solo by our most obliging pianist Miss Marpé. Miss Rawson then read a paper on life of Poe and this was followed by the reading of Annabel Lee by Miss Fortney. Miss Riley then read an interesting article on Poe’s female friends; Miss Kinney some selections from Poe and Miss Essellman The Raven, with which the literary programme closed. The roll was then called with response from all but one member, Miss Layman. Minutes of last meeting were the read and approved.

Miss Riley read two letters, one from Alpha telling of a new chapter which has just been chartered at Burlington Iowa, this being Delta’s seventh chapter. Another letter from Miss Shaw was read, informing us that our charter would be here at the earliest time possible, and also explaining why we had not received it before.
She writes that we can purchase an electrotype from which to have engraving for letter paper for 50¢, one of which the corresponding sec’y was to purchase.

The question discussed next was concerning the most convenient time for us to send delegate to Galesburgh. June seemed to meet with most favor, and sec’y commissioned to inform Alpha of same, and also to send greeting to new Eta Chapter.

The motion was made and seconded that we send a delegate and that she defray half of the expenses. Carried.

Suggestion was then brought before the society that we offer a prize at the coming field day exercises. The motion was made and carried that this prize be a medal. Miss Fick and Miss Powers were appointed the committee to attend to this.

After greatly enjoying the hospitality of our hostess Miss Baldwin, Tri Delta adjourned to meet 31st of March at home of Miss Rawson.

Minutes of meeting held March 31, ’93

In absence of the president the meeting was called to order by the Chaplain, who then read the 13th Chapter of Corinth and offered prayer.

The minutes of last meeting were then read and approved with one alteration, in name of committee members. Report of treasurer followed showing balance in treasury of $7.25. The corresponding sec’y having received no letters made no report. On account of absence of several members the reading of the chapter laws as drawn up by the committee was postponed, hoping to have all present at next meeting.

One member of medal committee gave informal report and submitted one design from Duhme. Motion made and carried to delay all action on that point until committee should obtain further estimates. Then, having no new business to attend to, the programme opened with a piano duet by Miss Marpé and Powers after which Miss Marpé read an interesting account of the Composer Beethoven’s life. Then followed a vocal selection by Miss Powers and a read by Miss Fick of a paper on the Symphonia Heroica. With another vocal solo the programme closed.

The Society then enjoyed the dainty lunch served by the hostess Miss Rawson, and after singing some Delta songs, the society adjourned to meet on the 14th of April in response to the invitation of Miss Lambdin.

Minutes of Meeting held April 14

Meeting opened with reading 13th Chapter of St. John and prayer. The sec’y’s minutes were then read and accepted. The roll was called and showed four members absent. The sec’y then read a letter from the absent corresponding sec’y informing us that the Tri Delta Convention was to occur April 19, 20, and 21. Another letter from Miss DePaul was also read.

With Miss Riley’s letter she sent an open letter, one like which every chapter had received from the Grand President, setting forth the points upon which we needed to have a discussion before sending our delegate Miss Riley. This open letter the sec’y read and each point was informally discussed. This discussion occupied so much time that the literary programme had to be postponed until next meeting as did also the reading of the Chapter Laws. After this discussion, the medal committee brought forward two more designs from Oscamp, (talt and lev) (sic) but the Duhme design was accepted, and committee charged to order it. Meeting closed with a duet by Misses Powell and Powers.

The hostess then pleasantly entertained the Deltas after which the most important meeting Z has had adjourned to meet April 29, 93.

Minutes of the 14th Meeting of ΔΔΔ

Tri Delta met at the residence of Miss Powers April 29th. The meeting was opened with reading of the 97th Psalm and prayer by our chaplain. The secretary’s minutes of last meeting were read and approved where-upon the business before the meeting was taken up. An agreement was entered upon with the V.C.P. to the affect that neither society pledge any young lady of the next freshman class at the University before the first Monday in January 1894. Then followed the election of officers for the ensuing Miss Lambdin, representative of the next senior class, was voted president by acclamation. The members decided to have the rest of the elections by ballot, and Miss Kinney appointed Misses Powers, Powell and Marpé to draw up the ticket. The society then proceeded to vote upon the ticket they submitted. Owing to a declining of offices, the president appointed a new committee which consisted of Miss Essellborn, Miss Layman and the president who had been asked by the members to serve as the third. They submitted their ticket and the result of the elections was as follows:

President                Miss Lucy Lambdin
Vice President           Miss Sadie Fortney
Corresponding Sec’y      Miss Stella M. Riley
Recording Sec’y          Miss Alma S. Fick
Chaplain                 Miss Agnes R. Powers
Treasurer                Mrs. Baldwin
Historian                Miss Carrie Powell
Librarian                Stella Fortney
Assistant Corresponding Sec’y Carrie Marpé
Door Keeper              Miss Nina Rawson

The secretary then read the Chapter Laws which had been drawn up by the committee Misses Powell, Powers and Marpé. Zeta promptly adopted the laws with but two amendments.

This closed the business of the meeting and the literary programme of which Miss Esselborn had charge was now attended to. It was opened by a piano duet by Mrs. Baldwin and Miss Fick. Miss Esselborn who had selected Robert Browning as the poet to be commemorated that afternoon gave us a most interesting account of his life and writings in general. Several selections from Browning were then well read by Miss Lambdin, Miss Powers and Miss Kinney. The programme closed with one of Mendelssohn’s Lieder ohne Worte rendered by Miss Fick.

Tri Delta girls, however, did not adjourn at once but enjoyed the hospitality of their kind hostess, Miss Powers, at a dainty lunch then they separated, the meeting was pronounced a most pleasant one.

Miss Marpé has kindly offered her house for the next meeting.

During the summer but one meeting Tri Delta was arranged for. This was at the home of Miss Marpé in Hartwell Ohio. Only five members were present. No business could therefore be transacted and the afternoon was spent in the nature of a social. The kind entertainment Miss Marpé offered her “sisters” made their visit to Hartwell a thoroughly enjoyable one.

Minutes of the 15th Meeting of ΔΔΔ

President Miss Lambdin called a meeting at her home Monday, October 2, 1893. It was opened by the reading of the Bible and prayer by our chaplain. Mrs. Baldwin acted as secretary pro tem in the absence of Miss Fick. The report of the programme committee was then submitted. The programme for the year was accepted ... made out by the committee, and is in the nature of a tourist programme subject for the years 93-94 being Egypt. The first programme is accordingly in charge of the Misses Powers and Riley. The committee also reported an estimate of the cost of having the programme printed. The bid of $8.00 made by the McMicken Publishing Co. was accepted. The question whether the programme was to be printed or not printed having been first decided in the affirmative. The next question submitted was in regard to the musical programme which portion of the year’s programme the committee had left to the discretion of the society. The members did not approve of the plan that the hostess in every case provide for the music at that meeting. The decision finally reached was that a committee of two be later appointed in the charge of the music.

The Annual was next considered. The motion that Tri Delta have its pictures taken was approved. Miss Lambdin and Mrs. Baldwin were appointed a committee of two to make inquiry concerning the picture their report to be ready by Saturday, October 7, 1893.

The names of Miss Coan and Miss Marshall were considered for membership. Both names met the approval of all present. It was thought best that a note be written to these young ladies by the corresponding secretary to inform them of the fact. Further Miss Marpé was asked to speak to Miss Marshall in the capacity of a particular friend. Mrs. Baldwin was asked to do likewise to Miss Coan.

Whereupon adjournment followed.

Minutes of the 16th Meeting of Tri Delta

Delta sisters met Saturday, October 7, 1893 at the home of Miss Layman. The minutes of the three last meetings were read and approved. Miss Fick read her report as treasurer of the preceding year, which report was likewise accepted. The next matter under consideration was a letter from the ΣAE fraternity which kindly invited the members of Tri Delta to meet when ever desirable in their fraternity halls. It seemed best to accept this offer conditionally and Miss Marpé as assistant corresponding secretary was instructed to inform the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity of this decision.

The question of changing our meeting day permanently to Saturday was next brought up but inasmuch as but four of the members were present at the meeting, a motion was made and carried to lay the matter on the table. The President then appointed the Misses Powell and Marpé on the committee for music. A motion was made to subscribe to two copies of the Trident for this year but this amended to “subscribe to only one copy” whereupon the motion as amended was carried.

Miss Fick was then appointed to write the chapter letter for the October number of the Trident. The question of appointing the associate editor of our chapter for the Trident was laid on the table. Whereupon adjournment followed but the Deltas did not immediately disperse but first enjoyed the bounty of their very kind hostess to the fullest degree. The meeting, though counting but eight Delta girls was voted a very pleasant one.

Tri Delta met October 21, 1893 at the home of the Misses Fortney. Eight of the members were present. Vice president Miss Fortney led the meeting in the absence of the president. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted. A short business meeting then followed. Miss Fick was appointed editor of the Trident for Zeta. The question of our meeting day, whether Saturday or Friday would be most convenient for the members was next in order. After some discussion the members decided in favor of Friday.

The question of the pictures was then taken up. Saturday, November 4, 1893 was fixed upon as the day when we were to pass through the ordeal. Most of the members were in favor of Core as the photographer and it was decided that the pictures be taken at Core’s unless the absent members should object. Miss Powell proposed the name of Miss Andrews for membership. But since the meeting counted many absentee, and since it seemed better that each member have a chance to reflect on the proposed name before voting, a motion was carried to defer the vote until next meeting.

The literary programme was then entered upon. Mrs. Baldwin and Miss Lambdin being absent, the programme consisted of a single but interesting number, an essay by Miss Riley, subject: “Come let us go down into Egypt.”

The Delta sisters were then hospitably entertained by their hostesses and the afternoon had proved an enjoyable one.

Minutes of the 18th Meeting of Tri Delta

The sisters in ΔΔΔ met Friday November 3, 1893, at the home of Miss Powers. Eleven members responded with quotations from Hawthorne to the calling of the roll. Prayer and the reading of a chapter from the Bible by the chaplain then opened the meeting. The question of the pictures of Tri Delta was the first and chief business before the meeting. The decision of the last meeting was reversed and Bellsmith was chosen in preference to Core. 8:30 Saturday morning, November 4 was definitely settled as the time when the pictures should be taken. An assessment of $1.25 each was levied on the members to pay for the pictures.

The name of Miss Andrews was then brought up. It was not voted on however since Miss Powell informed the members that owing to the great amount of work Miss Andrews had on her hands she would not be able to join us this year.

The literary programme now followed. Miss Darcie read us an interesting paper on Israel in Egypt. Miss Kinney entertained us with some comments on Egyptian worship. Miss Fick rendered a piano solo and Miss Powers sang the pretty song: Oh promise me!

The Deltas were then otherwise entertained by their hostess, Miss Powers, and thus a pleasant meeting closed.

Minutes of the 19th Meeting of Delta

On Friday, November 17, 1893, a meeting of Tri Delta was held at the home of Miss Powell. The meeting was not attended by many, only eight members answering the roll call with their quotations from James Russell Lowell. Prayer and the reading of a portion of the 37th Psalms by the chaplain followed.

The special assessment of $1.50 per member on behalf of the Trident was the first matter of consideration. The Deltas voted that the treasurer, Mrs. Baldwin inform Alpha Chapter of Zeta’s present circumstances and say that we are just now unable to pay the amount asked.

The next matter brought before the members related to the Annual and resolved itself into the question: Shall we have our picture put in the Annual or shall we rather have our cut if possible to obtain one put in same. This matter was laid on the table.

Since Miss Riley has been unable to attend our last meetings regularly it was deemed best that her duties of corresponding secretary be shifted upon her assistant, Miss Marpé.

Aware of the fact that a fine of $5 had been imposed on Zeta by the ΔΔΔ Convention at Galesburg for not having sent a delegate the members voted to have the circumstances and causes clearly stated to those in authority for they felt they had done all in their power to comply with the conditions mentioned in the constitution.

A serious question was now debated. Several members stated facts which seemed to point to the conclusion that the V.C.P. society had broken the pledge made with Tri Delta at the U. of C. It was resolved that our president write a note to the V. C. P. stating that it seemed to us that the spirit if not the letter of the pledge had been broken.

The literary programme was opened by the reading of a paper on “Scenes from Ancient Egyptian Life” by Miss Sadie Fortney. Miss Powers gave us a vocal solo and Miss Powell conducted a conversation on the advances which ancient Egypt had made in the sciences. This closed the programme proper but Delta sisters bountifully partook of the hospitality of their kind hostess before they turned their steps homeward.

Minutes of the 20th Meeting of Zeta, ΔΔΔ

A purely literary meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Baldwin Friday, December 1, 1893. Miss Marshall and Miss Coan had been invited to attend. Only 6 members were present to answer the roll call with quotations from Eggleson. Miss Powers read her paper on “The Sphinx” and the society then entered upon a discussion of “The Egyptian Princess” by Ebers conducted at random in Miss Marpés absence. Miss Fick rendered a piano solo and the two visitors delighted us with most beautiful piano solos and duets until Mrs. Baldwin invited all to the enjoyment of some “sweets” of every kind. Late in the afternoon the Tri Deltas adjourned.

Minutes of 21st Meeting of Tri Delta

On the 15th of December, 1893 Tri Delta met at the home of Miss Fick. After the roll call had been answered with quotations from Washington Irving on the part of nine Deltas, the chaplain read a chapter from the Bible and offered a prayer. The secretary’s minutes were read and approved. The members then proceeded to the business before them. The question of the pledge with the V.C.P.’s was once more under consideration. But this time in a more pleasant form for two of the members reported that it had been amiably settled between the societies that appearances had been somewhat deceiving, that in reality the pledge had not been broken.

The urgent plea for the maintenance of the Trident formed in the report of the convention which Miss Fick read at the members caused Zeta to decide to take 5 copies of the Trident, one for every two active members.

The literary programme was then taken up. Miss Stella Fortney read a pleasing sketch of “A Sail on the Nile” and Miss Marpé delighted us with a fine piano solo. Our president then launched us upon a discussion of the broad and important subject of new members. It was an excited discussion and ended in the proposal of a number of names for membership. Five names seemed to meet with special approval. In order, however, that our girls might become somewhat acquainted with these young ladies before a final vote be taken, it was decided that the ballot be cast on these names on Friday, December 22.

The Deltas now gave themselves up to the usual social pleasures and after partaking of some refreshments, the sisters to the great request of the hostess were obliged to depart for their several homes.

On Friday, December 22, 1893 a meeting of Tri Delta was called at the rooms of the U. of C. The object of the meeting was to obtain a vote on the several names proposed for membership. Seven members were present and one voted by proxy. The following names were approved by all, Misses Evans, Tucker, Thompson, Leonard and Whitson. Miss Marpé was instructed to tender them formal invitations to Tri Delta, and so to mail these that they would arrive on January 1, 1894. May great success await us.

Minutes of the 23rd Meeting of Tri Delta

A meeting was held Friday, January 5, 1894 at the home of Miss Rawson. The meeting was led by the chaplain in the absence of both president and vice-president. The 3rd chapter of Proverbs was read by the chaplain and followed by prayer. Seven members responded to the roll call with quotations from Longfellow. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted. A motion was made and carried to have the president appoint a committee of three to see to the signing and framing of the charter.

The question of the 2nd and 3rd degree was next brought up for consideration. It was decided that the president here again approve a committee of three to attend to this matter and that this committee attend also to the preparations for the initiations close at hand. The members were in favor of having initiation take place January 27, 1894.

This done the business before the society was ended. Miss Kinney then entertained us with a paper on The Sphinx in General. After this was ended, Miss Rawson, our hostess, entertained us royally in a more sensual sphere, causing the afternoon to end most delightfully amid chatting and feasting. After a few songs the Delta sisters adjourned to meet again January 27, 1894.

Initiation Meeting of Tri Delta, January 27

Tri Deltas met January 27, 1894 at the home of Miss Rawson. It was an important meeting for three young girls were joined to us in the firm bounds of ΔΔΔ on that day. Our new sisters are Misses Grace Marshall, Mary Sibley Evans, and Bessie Tucker. Our initiation was solemn indeed but scarcely had all the mystic rites been performed when we all ready to have a good time. A most delightful social was the result. The dainty spread Miss Rawson had prepared was duly enjoyed and Delta songs had a rousing effect. We cheered Tri Delta. Long may it live!

Minutes of the 25th Meeting of Tri Delta

The Deltas of Zeta met at the home of Miss Kinney, February 2, 1894. The meeting was opened by reading of the Bible and prayer by the chaplain. The minutes of the last two meetings were read and accepted. The president then appointed the following on the Committee on initiation matters: Misses Kinney, Powers and Sadie Fortney. This was merely the formal appointment for they had been appointed to serve on the committee several weeks before. As a committee to see to the signing and framing of the Charter, Miss Marpé was appointed. The latter was also at Miss Powers’ request put on the Initiation Committee. The Committee to attend to the Charter had originally been voted to consist of three, but this was changed to a committee of one at the president’s suggestions.

The date for conferring the 2nd degree was fixed as some day between March 17th and March 30th.

The literary programme was next order. It was opened by the secretary’s roll-call to which eleven members replied with quotations from Whittier on Thoreau. Miss Powers then read “The Address to the Mummy at Belzoni’s Exhibition.” This was followed by a piano duet by the Misses Marshall and Marpé.
Miss Layman gave us a most excellent essay on “The Three Castes.” Miss Powers and Miss Powell sang Marlowe’s “The Shepherd to his Mistress.” The literary programme closed with a discussion conducted by Miss Fick on the subject “Marriage and Burial Customs of the Egyptians.”

After a dainty repast, Tri Deltas adjourned to meet at the home of Miss Lambdin, Saturday, Feb. 17, 1894.

The regular paper of the day had been prepared by Miss Lambdin on the subject of “Cleopatra.” It was much enjoyed by the members. Meeting held March 3 at the home of Miss Powers was the 27th meeting of Tri Delta. It was as usual opened by reading from the Bible and prayer by our chaplain. The minutes of the previous meeting, read by Miss Powell as secretary pro tem in the absence of Miss Fick, were approved. The roll call was answered by seven members with quotations from Bayard Taylor. The president informed the members that twelve dollars ($12) were due the Annual for the printing of our pictures. No further business was before the meeting, nor indeed could any have been transacted since there was no quorum present.

The literary programme of the afternoon was opened by a piano duet by the Misses Marpé and Powers. Miss Powell read a paper on Egyptian art and architecture, and Miss Powers sang a vocal solo, “Sweet Marie.” The members remained together for some time yet and adjourned well satisfied with the afternoon.

On Friday March 16, a meeting was held at Miss Stella Riley’s home. Prayer and reading of the Bible followed. The members answered the roll-call with quotations from Holmes.

Each member represented on the picture was assessed $.50 to cover the expenses for the Annual, since it was deemed best not to touch the money raised by the weekly assessment of $.05 a member.

There was no literary programme and the members hence joined in sisterly chat and the afternoon was pleasantly passed under Miss Riley’s kind entertainment.

Minutes of the 29th Meeting of ΔΔΔ

This was held at Miss Kinney’s house March 30th, 1894. It was the meeting fixed upon for the conferring of the 2nd degree on the Misses Powell, Stella Fortney, Nina Rawson, Bessie Tucker, Mary Evans and Miss Baldwin. It was a meeting full of the greatest merriment but of course all mystic rites are secret.

A most delightful social followed and a regular feast was given the Tri Deltas by their sister, Miss Kinney. No literary programme was taken up, since initiation “services” of the 2nd degree occupied the whole afternoon.

A meeting of Delta was held April 13th at Miss Powell’s house. It was opened by the usual reading of the Bible and prayer. The business part of the meeting was first attended to. The members reversed their former decision and decided to subscribe to only four copies of the Trident.

The literary programme was opened by a duet by Miss Marpé and Miss Powers. Miss Riley read a paper on “Egypt’s temples and palaces.”

The afternoon was a most delightful one as all the members especially remarked before they separated to turn their steps homeward (or rather toward the Odeon where the University Drasonical Contest was to be held that evening.

Mrs. Baldwin invited the Delta sisters to meet at her home Friday, May 11, 1894. Five of the Deltas responded to her kind invitation but no meeting could be held because there was no quorum present. Hence the installation of officers was postponed until a later date. Though there were but few present that afternoon, we spent the most delightful “chatty” hours together and all regretted that the time had passed all too quickly.

The Tri Deltas met on Friday, Mary 25th 1894 with Miss Powell. The Bible reading and prayer was dispensed with in the absence of the chaplain. The treasurer’s report showed a balance of ten dollars and seventy cents in the treasury, but the dues had not yet been collected. Miss Lambdin moved that the money in the treasury be taken together with $2.50 from Miss Riley to pay the fine imposed for sending no delegate to the convention, and also to pay for the Trident. A letter and a postal were read by Miss Fick. It was moved to send the five $5.00 and $8.00 for the Trident. The motion was carried. A letter was read announcing the next convention to be held in Lawrence Co. N.Y. with the Beta chapter. The letter was from Miss Murray and stated that the convention would meet in Oct. The motion was carried that Miss Fick be instructed to write that the date was very inconvenient on account of its coming in school time. It was decided that Christmas be suggested as convention time.

It was also agreed upon that the girls go out to the country about June 20. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in pleasant social chat.

Tri Deltas held the first regular meeting of the year with Miss Baldwin on Saturday November 9, 1894. Before the regular meeting began, Miss Closterman was initiated as she had not been present on the day of initiation. The meeting was opened with reading of the Bible and prayer by our chaplain, Miss Sadie Fortney. The minutes of the last meeting of the preceding year were read and approved and the program of the hour was begun. We had a brief synopsis of some of Mrs. Ward’s best known novels especially, “Marcella,” which was very enjoyable. Miss Powell gave an account of two of Weyman’s books and Miss Evans gave a description of the English village. Miss Marshall led the conversation on Current Events and then favored us with some music. The question was considered as to our having note paper stamped with the ΔΔΔ emblems. Miss Powers was instructed to write to Miss Joslyn for a cut for the paper. Then it was agreed upon also that if we have our pictures in the annual, they are to be arranged in a circle with the pin and emblems in the center. It was resolved that the fine for non-attendance upon the convention be paid and that we pay Prof. Baldwin for the programs as soon as possible.

The holiday meeting of the Tri Delta sisters was held at the home of Miss Marshall, December 29, 1894. Owing to the absence of our chaplain, Miss Sadie Fortney, the devotional exercises were dispensed with. The minutes of the last meeting were called for but were not at hand, owing to the absence of the secretary pro tem. The roll was then called and was responded to by eight members. It was decided to first (go) through the business of the hour at once before proceeding with the program. The election of an editor for the Trident and Review to represent Zeta Chapter of ΔΔΔ was the first matter before the house and this resulted in the election of Miss Bentley. The question of paying the fine came up again and it was decided to pay the $10.00 at once for which the old members were to pay $.50, and the remaining to be taken from the treasury. It was also decided to send all the money still remaining in the treasury for the Trident. It was agreed upon that we would send for a monogram for letter heads.

Our part in the annual next came up for discussion and we decided to leave that matter for a called meeting when we should know more fully what we could do about it. Then we proceeded to our program which was most enjoyable. Mrs. Baldwin told us of Coppree (sic) and Zola (sic). Miss Bentley of the French Village. Miss Elsie Marshall then favored us with some vocal music and afterwards Miss Perin led the conversation on Current Events. Miss Marshall was kind enough to sing for us again and Miss Powers pleased us with a recitation appropriate to the Christmas. Altogether Tri Delta may say truly that this was one of the most delightful gatherings of the year.
