Met Opera on Demand: Student Access is the online streaming database featuring more than 550 unforgettable Met performances captured live from the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House. This electronic resource for college and university libraries provides instant access to an unparalleled collection of full-length operas. Your users can stream historic, world-class performances from the Met's 75+ year broadcasting history—anytime, anywhere in the world. The collection includes:

- 90+ high definition videos from the Met's award-winning Live in HD series of cinema transmissions, featuring today's greatest opera stars and visionary directors together with the incomparable Met orchestra and chorus in stunning HD.
- 75+ classic telecasts recorded from 1977-2003, including legendary performances by such singers as Plácido Domingo, Marilyn Horne, Luciano Pavarotti, Leontyne Price, Renata Scottò, Joan Sutherland, Jon Vickers, and many more.
- 400+ audio performances from the Met's beloved Saturday matinee radio broadcasts dating back to 1935.
- Multi-language subtitles in English, French, German, Italian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish and/or Swedish for many HD videos, and English subtitles available for all videos.
- Every opera is accompanied by an English synopsis, and many offer synopses in multiple languages.
- New video and audio titles are added every month.
- MARC records available through OCLC.
- NEW! Redesigned Met Opera on Demand: Student Access website is fully accessible on Android and iOS mobile devices (tablets and smartphones.)
