

German-Americana Collection
Third German Protestant Memorial Church of Cincinnati

This collection consists of the records books of the Third German Protestant Memorial Church of Cincinnati. The congregation emerged out of the German Evangelical Lutheran and Reformed Church that was founded in 1814 in Cincinnati, and had a long and interesting history, eventually becoming the Third German Protestant Memorial Church. After the First World War, the Church dropped "German" from its name, and became the Third Protestant Memorial Church. In 2001, the Church, which was located on Calhoun Street near the University of Cincinnati, was dissolved due to loss of membership. For a history of the congregation, see: Don Heinrich Tolzmann, "Cincinnati's Third German Protestant Church," in: Don Heinrich Tolzmann, ed., Das Ohiotal – The Ohio Valley: The German Dimension. (New York: Peter Lang Pub. Co., 1993), pp. 165-99.
